Definitions

- "Error" is a mistake, misprint, misinterpretation, mishearing, misreading, mistranslation, spelling mistake, technical hazard, registration error, transaction error, manifest error, force majeure, and/or similar. Examples of errors include, but are not limited to:
 - Bets accepted during technical problems that otherwise would not have been accepted;
 - Bets placed on events/offers that have already started or been decided;
 - Bets on markets containing incorrect participants;
 - Bets placed at odds that are materially different from those available in the general market at the time the bet was placed;
 - Bets offered at odds that reflect an incorrect score situation; or
 - Odds being clearly incorrect given the chance of the event occurring at the time the bet was placed.
- "Influence Betting" is an act, prohibited by the operator, where a player, or parties acting in association with a player, can influence the outcome of a match or an event, directly or indirectly.
- "Syndicate Betting" is an act, prohibited by the operator, where players act together to place a series of bets on the same event or competition. Where there is evidence of players acting together in this manner, the operator reserves the right to make the relevant bets void and/or withhold payment of returns, pending the outcome of subsequent investigations.
- Bet Acceptance
 - Unless accepted in error, once accepted, a bet will remain valid and cannot be withdrawn. It is the responsibility of the player to ensure details of the bets placed are correct. Under no circumstance will the operator accept any responsibility for any mistakes (perceived and actual) deriving from either errors or any other reason, such as, but not limited to, an incorrect listing of the odds/betting objects.
 - Should a dispute arise about the acceptance (or lack thereof) of any transaction in the player's account, the transaction log database will be the ultimate authority in deciding such matters.
- Betting & Payout Limitation
 - The operator reserves the right to limit the net payout (the payout after the stake has been deducted) on any bet or combination of bets by reducing the amount the player is permitted to place on the wager. This limit may be lower depending on the specific sport, league, and type of bet offer.

- All bet selections are subject to pre-imposed limits set solely at the operator's discretion, which may be lower than the limits mentioned in the House Rules. Should this limit be reached, the player has the right to ask to exceed the limit through a request effected through the operator's Sportsbook platform. The operator reserves the right to accept (fully or partially) or reject the request without any prior notice and further explanation.
- The operator reserves the right to decline, solely at its discretion, all, or part of, any bet requested. This includes the possibility that a wager, such as a Round Robin, as defined herein is not accepted in full, either in terms of stakes or combinations included in said Round Robin.

- All bets placed through the operator's Sportsbook platform, including bets requesting manual approval, may be subject to a time delay prior to acceptance, the length of which may vary. Such delay is to be determined by the operator at its sole discretion.
- The operator reserves the right, upon approval from TGA, to withhold payment and/or to declare bets void on an event (or series of events), if there is sufficient evidence that any of the following has occurred:
 - The integrity of the event has been called into question.
 - The price(s) or pool has been manipulated.
 - Match-rigging has taken place, or the match is under investigation for such. Evidence of the above may be based on the size, volume, or pattern of bets placed with the operator across any or all of its betting channels, as well as information received from other betting providers or officially recognized organizations.
- All odds offered are subject to variation. Such fluctuation is determined solely at the operator's discretion. Bets are accepted only at the odds available in the betting grid at the time the bet was accepted by the operator, irrespective of any other claim or previous publication present on the website or any other media detailing otherwise.
- All payout calculations when settling bets will be done based on decimal odds, irrespective of any other format displayed/chosen at time of bet placement.

Cancellation Of Bets

- Bets that are declared canceled, void, or no action as outlined will be refunded at Management's discretion.
- Parlay or accumulative bets will remain valid with recalculated odds if a match or portion of the event that is part of the parlay/accumulative bet is considered canceled, void, or no action. This does not include parlays or accumulative bets that are offered at boosted odds. If all events within the parlay are canceled, void, or have no action, the wager will be declared void in its entirety.
- The operator reserves the right to declare a wager void if it is obvious that any of the following circumstances have occurred:
 - Bets offered, placed, and/or accepted due to an error.
 - Bets placed while the system was encountering technical problems that would otherwise not have been accepted.
 - Influence Betting

- A result affected by criminal actions — directly or indirectly
- A public announcement occurred in relation to the bet which significantly altered the odds
- Pre-match Betting
 - When a customer places multiple copies of the same bet or places a number of bets that contain the same single selection. When this occurs, all bets may be voided apart from the first bet struck. An example would be where one particular selection is repeatedly included in multiple bets involving other short-priced selections
 - Betting affected after the event started
 - Betting after a related event was underway and where conditions could have been altered in a direct and indisputable way
- Live Betting
 - Betting effected at an incorrect price due to delayed or failing live coverage
 - Betting effected on particular offers after these have occurred, or else after an event, which could normally be deemed as leading to the outcome, has happened or is happening (e.g. bets placed on offers such as total goals scored or next goal while a penalty is being taken or has been awarded)
 - Betting affected odds which represented a different score than the actual
- A bet made as a parlay or accumulative bet must never include two or more offers in which the outcomes might turn out to be related (e.g., Team X to become champions and Player Y to be top goal scorer in the same league). Although the operator takes all necessary steps to prevent such possibilities, in the eventuality that this would happen, the operator reserves the right, solely at its discretion, to declare void all parts of the parlay/accumulative bet that include the correlated outcomes.
- Bets can be voided regardless of whether the event has been settled or not.

Soccer 1st & 2nd half wagers must go at least 45 minutes to be considered “action”
Other	All contests, events, etc. not listed above that involve a predetermined length of play, time, distance, etc. that are not reached, yet the event is called final by event officials with a winner declared, will be considered official for betting purposes, unless otherwise stipulated on guest wagering information sheets and odds display.

Soccer 1st half or 2nd half wagers must go at least 45 minutes to be considered “Action”.

- For all sports except Baseball, for Proposition bets the player must play for “Action” or all bets for that player will be considered “no action/void.” For Baseball, the player must start for “Action” or all bets for that player will be considered “no action/void.”

- Both sides must start in any two-way matchup propositions

- Any straight wager deemed “no action” will be refunded. If a parlay has a leg that is deemed “no action”, the parlay will reduce by one selection (i.e., 4-team parlay becomes a 3-team parlay, 2-team parlay becomes a straight wager). If a teaser has a leg that is deemed “no action”, the teaser will be reduced by one selection (i.e., 4-team teaser becomes a 3-team teaser, 2-team teaser becomes a refund).

- For season-long player statistical leader and award futures players must play in at least one regular season game for “action”.

- In the event of a tie or a “dead heat” the bet amount is divided by the number of players that are tied for that placing while the original odds stand. An example of this would be a $100 wager placed on Golfer A at +200 to finish in the Top 5. If Golfer A ties with 4 other Golfers for 5th place the wager will be calculated by dividing the $100 stake 5 times per Rules. Calculation: $$20 \times +200 = \60

Auto Racing

- All future book wagers on Auto Racing are “Action” once Driver begins event unless stipulated otherwise on guest wagering information sheets or odds display.

- All participants in event match-up or Driver propositions must start the event, or that proposition is “No Action” and the wager will be refunded.

inspection. At that time auto series recognized results and statistics will be used to determine all winners and losers. Subsequent changes will not be recognized.

- The field includes any driver who is not listed.

- If a specific event is suspended/postponed, then bets will be considered “action” provided that the event is completed within 72 Hours.

- Baseball wagers are accepted in the following manner: i. All bets are action, team against team regardless of the starting pitcher. There are no listed pitchers.

- On baseball first-inning wagers, the first inning must be completed for “Action”.

- On baseball’s first 5 inning Money Line wagers the game must go 5 complete innings or 4 ½ innings with the home team winning for action.

- When wagering on “totals” (over/under), extra innings, etc., are counted in the final score unless stipulated otherwise.

- All settlements are based on the results and statistics provided by the relevant league’s governing body (e.g., Major League Baseball).

- Called/suspended games must go a minimum of five innings, or four and one-half innings if the home team is ahead.

- If a game goes past five innings and is subsequently called/suspended, the winner is determined by the score after the last full inning of play. Except in a case in which the home team scores to tie or take the lead in the bottom half of the inning in which the game is Postponed or Suspended; the runs do count.

- When wagering on baseball full game “totals” or “run lines”, the game must go at least the regulation nine innings (eight and one-half if the home team is ahead) for a scheduled nine-inning game. For baseball’s first 5 innings “totals” or “run lines” the game must go 5 complete innings for action.

- For all non-US professional leagues and college baseball and softball, wagers are “action” regardless of starting pitchers. “Totals” and “run line” wagers are subject to the same game length rules as professional US baseball. The bottom team that is listed, does not necessarily bat last.

- If on the day of the event conclusion no winner is determined, minimum play requirements are not met or if “no contest” is declared, all wagers on that event will be considered “No Action” for betting purposes, and the wager will be refunded.

- When wagering on softball “totals” or “run lines”, the game must go at least the regulation seven innings (six and one-half innings if the home team is ahead). i. If the game goes past regulation innings into extra innings and is subsequently suspended or postponed, it is considered to have “action” and the winner and loser shall be determined by the score at the time the game is called/suspended. In the case where the home team does not complete their turn at bat in the bottom half of an extra-inning game, the score reverts to the previous full inning of play, unless the home team scores to tie the game, in which then the score will be determined at the point of suspension.

- For the World Baseball Classic or any other games that are called due to the mercy rule, "totals" and "run lines" are considered "action".
- Unless odds are quoted for a tie, any market where the result is a tie, those bets will be refunded.
- For pro baseball regular season wins wagers, please check customer sheets for the minimum required games to be played for "action".
- In the event that the All-Star Game does not go into extra innings but is decided by a Home Run Derby the Winner of the Derby will have one(1) run added to its score and this run will count towards the game total. Example of the Home Run Derby scenario: If the score is 3-3 after nine(9) innings the team winning the Home Run Derby will win the game 4-3.

- All games must be fully completed for full-game basketball wagers to be "action". NBA must play a minimum of 43 minutes to be considered "completed". College, WNBA, and International must play a minimum of 35 minutes to be considered "completed".
- All first and second half and quarter wagers must be played to their conclusion to be considered "action".

- Overtime is counted in the final score, unless otherwise specified. Overtime will count in halftime wagers unless otherwise specified. Overtime will not count in any bets involving specific quarters.
- Unless odds are quoted for a tie, any market where the result is a tie will be refunded.

- For pro basketball regular season wins wagers, please check customer sheets for the minimum required games to be played for "action".

Boxing/MMA

- In "Fighting", a full round is defined as one in which the bell (buzzer, etc.) has sounded signifying the conclusion of such a round. If a fighter is counted out or the bout officially stopped before the bell, that round is not considered a full round for wagering purposes. If a half round (one minute and thirty seconds of a three minute round, 2 minute 30 seconds of a five minute round) or other specified time is listed, the official time of the conclusion of the bout, as determined by ring officials, will determine proposition winners and losers.
- If a boxing or mixed martial arts fight ends at exactly 1:30 of a 3:00 minute round or 2:30 of a 5:00 minute round, whereas the fight lands exactly on the listed total, over/under wagers will be refunded.

- On fighting and mixed martial arts "K.O." proposition wagers, "K.O." includes knockout, technical knockout, disqualification, or any other stoppage.
- For pick the knockout round wagers, if a fighter doesn't answer the bell for the next round, the previous round will be declared the winner. Knockout includes a technical knockout and disqualifications.
- On fighting and mixed martial arts "Decision" proposition wagers, "Decision" means the fight must go to the judge's scorecards to determine a winner, including a technical decision.
- On fighting and mixed martial arts "Draw" proposition wagers, "Draw" means the fight must go to the judges' scorecards and be declared a draw; including a technical draw. In the event of a draw, wagers on who will win are "no action"
- All straight win wagers will have "action" regardless of any changes in weight class, scheduled length of the bout, or championship sanction unless otherwise stipulated. All round, knock-out ("K.O.") or decision proposition wagers are "no action" if the scheduled length of the bout is changed.
- All wagers will be settled according to the official result of the relevant governing body immediately as declared by the ring announcer at the end of the fight.
- For settlement purposes, in case the match is interrupted for any reason in between rounds, e.g., retirement before the start of a round, disqualification, or failure to answer the bell, the fight will be deemed to have finished at the end of the previous round.
- In the event of a fight being declared a "no-contest", all wagers (including totals) on that fight will be considered "no-action", regardless of when the fight is stopped.

Football

- Games must be played at the venue specified for "action."
- Wagers for all full-game markets stand providing at least 55 minutes of play have taken place and an official result is declared, unless otherwise specified.
- Overtime counts unless otherwise specified. Overtime will count in halftime wagers unless otherwise specified. Overtime will not count in any bets involving specific quarters.
- Wagers for all partial-game markets are action upon the completion of the specified period. For example, a 1st half wager is action if a game is postponed in the 2nd half; whereas a 4th quarter wager is void if the game is postponed in the 4th quarter.
- Ties will be posted as a "refund".
- For 2nd Half Football Bets - For any bets in these markets, unless otherwise stated, Overtime will be counted when determining how the bets are settled.
- Futures/Season Bets - NFL regular season win totals, and matchups are based on teams completing all 17 regular season games, and for CFL all 18 regular season games, College Football teams must play all scheduled regular season games for action.
- When wagering on football regular season win totals (college and professional), teams must play the exact number of games on their schedule for "action". If there is a change in opponent, if the team plays the originally scheduled number of games, those bets are still declared as "action". For college football regular season wins, conference championships and bowl games do not count towards the win total.

- For pro football championship game proposition wagers, please consult the customer sheets for all rules that govern specific bets.

Golf

- All bets referring to Tournament Performance (Winner, Place, Group Betting, Top Nationality, Individual Final Position, etc.) will be deemed valid as long as 36 holes have been completed by the eligible players, and an official result has been declared by the tournament organization.
- If a golfer withdraws before the start of a tournament all futures bets will be action unless otherwise specified
- Most holes played win golf matchups. If holes are equal, then a low score wins.
- If both golfers listed in a "head-to-head" match-up are involved in a 3-way (or more) playoff, either golfer involved must win the playoff to win that matchup or the proposition is "No Action" and the wager will be refunded.
- In "Head to Heads" based on the best finishing position in the tournament, in case one player misses the cut then the other player will be settled as the winner. If both participants fail to make the "Cut" the player with the lowest score at the "Cut" will be resulted as the winner.
- In the event of a tie or a "dead heat" the bet amount is reduced by the number of players tied for that placing while the original odds stand. An example of this would be a $100 wager placed on Golfer A at +200 to finish in the Top 5. If Golfer A ties with 4 other Golfers for 5th place the wager will be calculated by dividing the $100 stake 5 times per Rules. Calculation: $$20 \div +200 = \60
- Tournament Group Betting: Winning bets must select the player who achieves the highest tournament placing from a selected group. In the event of any player in the group not teeing off, bets will be refunded. Players missing the cut will be eliminated unless all of the players in the group miss the cut. If this occurs the lowest score at that stage will determine the winner. Dead heat rules apply if two or more players are tied at the end of the tournament unless the result is determined by a playoff in which case the playoff winner is considered the group winner.
- Round Leader Markets: Bets will be settled after the specific round has been completed. Dead heat rules apply.

Hockey

- For wagers that specify "Including Overtime", In the event of a shootout in Hockey, the winner of the shootout will have one (1) goal added to its score and this goal will count towards the game total regardless of the number of shootout goals scored. For player yes-no goal-scoring props, shootout goals do not count

- Wagers for all full-game markets stand providing at least 55 minutes of play have taken place and an official result is declared, unless otherwise specified.
- If overtime includes another period, the first team to score will win the game. This overtime goal wagers will be included in the puck line wagers and total wagers that are only specified as "including overtime".
- For college hockey wagering purposes, regular season final scores will be determined by the rules of the particular conference. 3 on 3 and shootout results may not count towards the final score.
- Wagers for all partial game markets are action upon the completion of the specified period. For example, a 1st period wager is action if a game is postponed in the 3rd period; whereas a 2nd period wager is void if the game is postponed in the 2nd period.
- Ties will be refunded unless the market is a three-way market (where odds are quoted for a tie)

For all first half goal line, money line and total wagers, the score at the end of 45 minutes, plus injury minutes, will be used to determine winning and losing wagers.
- A wager on a team "To Advance" will include the result of extra time and penalty kick shootouts to determine the winner of the match.
- Wagers will be decided based on the score at the referee's final whistle at the match's natural conclusion, whether the match is decided in regular time, extra time, or in a penalty shootout.
- For 3-way wagering propositions: sides must win, lose, or draw (each is a separate wagering interest). If the wagering offer on a match includes the draw as a third option and the match ends in a draw, wagers on the draw will be paid, while wagers on both teams will be considered losing propositions. Three Way wagers will be decided based on the score after 90 minutes of play and any added injury time
- Official league data will be used to determine all statistical wagering propositions, player proposition wagers, and future book wagers. This may take up to one hour after the conclusion of the match to be settled.

- In head-to-head match, the best time/score is the winner.

- Tennis
 - If a player retires or is disqualified from a match before its completion; all wagers placed will be refunded.

Dead Heat Rules

- Unless stated otherwise in the specific sport rules, the Dead Heat rule applies to bets on the market where there are more winners than expected.
- If a Dead Heat between two selections is declared on any event, half the stake is applied to the selection at full odds and the other half is lost. If more than two Dead Heats are declared, the stake is proportioned accordingly.
- In the event of a tie, if not otherwise stated as a push settlement and a "draw" option was not offered, wagers will be paid at face value of the ticket (total payout figure including the initial stake) divided by the number of competitors tied for that placing. The stake is proportioned according to the number of competitors tied for that placing.

Example: $100 placed on Phil Mickelson at +200 to finish in the top 10. If Mickelson ties with four other competitors for the 10th position, your wager will be calculated by dividing your $100 stake five times, as per the rules.

Popular Wagers

Parlay Bet - A parlay is a single bet that links two or more wagers. To win the bet, the player must win all the wagers in the parlay. If one wager is lost, the entire bet is lost. However, if all the wagers in the parlay are won, the player wins a higher payoff than if the bets had been placed separately.

Straight Bet - A straight bet is an individual wager on a game or event that will be determined by a point spread or money line.

Futures Bet - A futures bet is a wager placed on an event typically far in the future, such as which team will win next year's MLB World Series.

Proposition Bets - Proposition bets, otherwise known as prop bets, focus on the outcome of events within a given game. Props are often offered on marquee games of great interest. These include Sunday and Monday night NFL games, and various high-profile college football games, including bowl or championship games. An example of a prop bet is "Which team will score the first touchdown?".

Teaser Bet - A teaser bet is a type of football or basketball wager in which the point spread is adjusted by additional points in the player's favor on more than one game. In football, a player may move the posted point spread 6, 6.5, 7, 10, or 14 points (10- and 14-point teaser ties lose). In basketball, 4-, 5-, and 6-point sports betting teasers are offered.

Round Robin Bet - A round-robin bet is a series of parlays. For example, a three-team round-robin consists of three two-team parlays (A + B, A + C, and B + C).

Point Spread

The most popular sports bets are based on the point spread. The point spread represents the margin of points in which the favored team must win the game to "cover the spread." Bets on the point spread are usually offered at 11-to-10 odds. For example, a player must bet $11 to win $10 for a total payout of $21, or $110 to win $100.

Money Line Bet

The money line represents the odds of a team winning the game outright without the use of the point spread. The money line is expressed as a 3-digit number. For example, -150 means a player must bet $150 for every $100 they wish to win, $15 for every $10, and multiples thereof.

Off The-Board Payouts

- Straight bets pay 10-11 unless posted otherwise on printed media.
- In the event of a tie in a straight wager, the wager will be considered "no action" and will be refunded.
- All parlays are based on a true odds format. This is calculated by multiplying the decimal equivalent of each event by the amount wagered.
- A maximum payoff limit of 299-1 is paid on parlays "off the board." In the event of a tie or "no action," parlay is reduced to the next lower number of parlays. Acceptance of all parlays is at the discretion of Management. In a two-team teaser involving a tie, the wager is considered "no action" and money is refunded regardless of the outcome of the other team. Otherwise, a tie or no action reduces the teaser to the next lower number of plays. Acceptance of all teasers is at the discretion of Management.
- Buying points and wager requests other than posted terms: Player may buy half point(s) on straight wagers in football and basketball or request terms other than what is posted at the odds selected by Management.
